Colonial Writs of Partition (Continued from p.78.)

SCMAR, Vol. I, Summer 1973, No. 3, p.130

"Pages 169-172. Petition of James Mackay and Susannah his wife late Susannah Sealy of Granville County, sheweth that John Sealy late of the same county and province, planter deceased, died owning a tract containing 900 acres known by the name of the Swamp Plantation in Granville County, and by his Will bearing date 17 Oct. 1767 bequeathed one third part of his said plantation tot eh said Susanah Mackay and the remaining two thirds to his son Joseph Sealy a minor under for years of age. Your petitioners are desirous of having the said plantation divided, and pray his Majesty's Writ of Partition. Commission to Daniel Heyward, John Heyward, Josiah Dupont, Gideon Dupont, and Cornelius Dupont commanding the desired division. Susannah Mackay is upwards of 21 years of age. 1769 (no day or month given). ... Commissioners' report dated 25 Sept 1769."

Children by John Sealy III:

- 5.        i    Joseph Sealy, born ca 1763 in Swamp Plantation, Granville Co., SC.<sup>1</sup>
- 6.        ii  Hannah Sealy. According to Houston Research.

3. John Sealy, (1.Mr.<sup>1</sup>) died 1773 in SC, will signed 28 Jul 1773 in St. Helena's Parish, Granville County, SC,<sup>3</sup> <John Sealy, St. Helena's Parish, Granville County. Wife Mary Bellinger, to live on my plantation during her widowhood. Dau. Elizabeth. Nephews: James Baggin Sealy, to be apprenticed out to a bricklayer at 14 years; Joseph Sealy, son of John [Sealy]. Niece: Dorcas Sealy, to be apprenticed to a mantua maker at 13 years. Mentions: children to be maintained and educated out of estate; Alexander Peronneau; unborn child; residue of estate to "all my children under age" Executors Thomas Rivers of Charles Town; Stephen Bull of Sheldon; John Bull at the Oakatee. Witnesses: D. Desausure; Edward Ellington; McKelsall. D. 28 July 1773, P. nd R. nd, page 40.>. This would explain John Sealy being the executor to his brother-in-law John Sealy (d. 1767 will 1767). This fits with John mentioning his nephew Joseph Sealy (son of John Sealy), again showing that the two John's were 1st cousins.
